L.C. BILL No. 9 OF 1954.

(As passed by the Council on the 12th August 1954.)

A Bill to provide for and validate the grant of temporary permissions for the installation of oil engines in areas within the jurisdiction of local authorities in the State of Madras.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for and validate the grant of temporary permissions for the installation of oil engines in areas within the jurisdiction of local authorities in the State of Madras :

BE it enacted in the Fifth Year of Our Republic as follows :—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Madras Installation of Oil Engines (Temporary Permission) Act, 1954.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Madras.

(3) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st May 1953.

2. Grant of temporary permission for installation of oil engines.—(1) Where a person who has lawfully installed in any premises, whether in a residential area or not, any machinery or manufacturing plant driven by electric power, applies for permission to install an oil engine to generate power for working such machinery or plant, the Commissioner, Corporation of Madras, the Municipal Council, the District Board or the Panchayat, as the case may be, may grant permission to such person to install such an oil engine.

(2) Permission granted under sub-section (1) shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of the grant and, subject to that condition, shall be deemed to be permission granted by the Commissioner, Corporation of Madras, the Municipal Council, the District Board or the Panchayat, as the case may be, under the Madras City Municipal Act, 1919 (Madras Act IV of 1919), the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Madras Act V of 1920), the Madras District Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XIV of 1920), or the Madras Village Panchayats Act, 1950 (Madras Act X of 1950).
